

Comply with the Law

Stay ahead of contractual and regulatory issues to maintain your edge.

The time and effort it takes to comply with state and federal laws while effectively managing day-to-day operations can be a drain on any organization's resources. Washington Employers' highly skilled professionals offer you the services and expertise needed to help you avoid costly compliance errors, leaving you to manage other matters at hand.

When you rely on us to handle your contractual and regulatory concerns, we're sure you'll notice the passion we have for the services we provide. Our teams work together each and every day to anticipate and solve the issues you are facing. Through true team integration, our four teams of professionals are able to smoothly help you through even the most complex compliance issues.

Employment Law Services

- Day-to-Day Employment Law and Counsel
- Labor Relations
- Contract Negotiations
- Regulatory Representation

Workers' Compensation Services

- DOSH/WISHA Compliance
- Safety and Loss Control
- Claims Management
- Return to Work Strategies

Human Resource Services

- Day-to-Day Human Resource Advice
- State and Federal Law Interpretations
- Employee Handbook Review
- Affirmative Action Plan Design
- Assessments and Investigations

HR Flex™ Services

- Onsite Project Work
- Interim HR Support - Services tailored to meet your organization's needs and culture
 - During temporary absence of a HR staff member
 - Added HR presence during a critical stage of your business
 - A mentor or leader to take your HR department to next level

Compliance questions? Call our helpful professionals for fast, thorough answers. Or, access our user-friendly website for job description information, HR policies, editorial analysis, publications and updates, plus federal and state law regulations.

"For the past 16 years, in two different school districts, I have relied on Washington Employers for labor relations expertise and support. Their deep knowledge and understanding of complex public sector bargaining laws and climates in Washington state is an essential asset for bargaining fair and legal employee contracts, and for maintaining positive labor relations."

*Patti Banks, Superintendent,
University Place School District,
University Place, WA*