

Online Harassment Training

- Are you wondering how to offer make-up sessions to employees who missed your live onsite harassment training?
- Are you a supervisor that needs a refresher course on harassment prevention and how to handle a harassment complaint?
- Do you struggle with how to train new employees who have been hired since your last live onsite harassment training was completed?
- Are you trying to deliver training to employees who must travel long distances to the training site?

Washington Employers has the solution!

Our NEW Online Workplace Harassment Course meets your training needs any time, day or night. You can pause and restart the course at your convenience, and the program can be delivered to almost any computer with a high-speed internet connection.

Separate Courses Available for Employees and Supervisors
